Lawrence Caproni, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Caproni, of West Second street, who suffered a broken arm last week is able to attend school though still carrying the arm in a sling.

There is some talk of the C. & O. railroad making an experiment with steel ties on the Cincinnati division at points between here and Silver Grove, as it is almost impossible to secure wooden ties.

Word has been received by the local draft board from Frankfort that this county is to furnish nine colored drafted men to report to the aviation mobilization camp at Fort Wayne, Mich., on May 6.

AUTO MAKES WILD RUN
A Hupp roadster belonging to Mr. Harry Duncan, of Mayslick, became released in some unknown manner while standing on Fourth street Saturday night and backed down Market street. As the hill between Third and Fourth streets is rather steep the machine gained considerable speed by the time it passed Third street. It backed onto the pavement in front of Duley & Gray's barber shop and then turned around and ran into a Ford machine parked in the street. Neither of the machines were damaged to any great extent. It was a wild run and lucky that no one was injured.

Miss Martha Tuttle, bookkeeper for the Singer Sewing Machine Co., of this city spent the week end with relatives in Lexington.

GOOD NEWS

Although It May Be the Package Containing It When Received Will Be a Small One.

Some twenty years ago the Paducah Building and Trust Company sent a representative into this city and county soliciting buyers for stock in that concern and when he pointed his toes toward McCracken county he carried a good-sized wad of Maysville and Mason county wealth, secured from some of our best citizens.

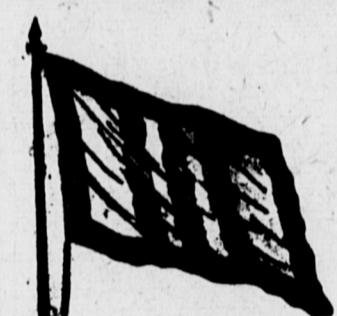

Shortly afterwards this remarkable Trust Company "blew up" and in the confusion accompanying such an "accident" a small dividend was sent out to those who had "come across" with their mazuma, and then it died out and was forgotten.

Last week, however, the corpse showed signs of life. A letter was received here by one of the stockholders, informing him that on the 30th day of last March the McCracken Circuit Court, in the action of Gip Husbands, Receiver, vs. R. G. Caldwell, etc., declared a dividend and directed Mr. Husbands, as receiver, of the Paducah Building and Trust Company, out of the assets of that company in his hands, to pay it to the creditors who have heretofore filed and proved their claims in said action.

The communication does not say how much the dividend will be, but it is hoped it will be sufficient to enable those here to buy some Liberty Bonds and help put Mason over the top.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Nauman spent Sunday in Cincinnati with relatives.

HUNS CLAIM CAPTURE

Of 183 Prisoners in Attack on U. S. Lines—German Official Statement Says Storm Troops Inflicted Heavy Losses on the Americans.

Berlin, via London, April 21—The capture of 183 American prisoners and 25 machine guns by the Germans is claimed in the official report from headquarters today. The German storm troops, it also is declared, advanced to a depth of two kilometers (about a mile and a quarter) into the American lines at Schlechepre.

The Americans, the statement adds, sustained heavy losses.

The text of the statement reads:

"On the battle front reciprocal reconnaissances led to violent infantry engagements. Near La Basse, Lens and Albert there was a lively firing duel; also between the Avre and the Oise and the artillery activity at many times was spirited.

"Between the Oise and the Moselle, lower Saxon battalions attacked the Americans in their positions near Schlechepre. They stormed the place and pressed forward as far as two kilometers into the enemy lines. Minor counter attacks were repulsed and strong attempts to attack were held down and frustrated.

"In the night hour storming troops, after the destruction of enemy works, returned to their lines of departure. The losses of the Americans were extraordinarily high. One hundred and eighty-three Americans, including five officers, were taken prisoners and twenty-five machine guns were captured.

With the American Army in France, April 21—After the heavy German attack yesterday, the American main positions remained intact, and this morning after a brief bombardment, the American troops attacked and drove the enemy out of the old outposts which they had gained, thus breaking down an offensive which it is believed was intended as the beginning of a German plan to separate the Americans and French.

There was a comparative lull today along the sector northwest of Toul. The Americans engaged in the terrific hand to hand fighting yesterday showed the most daring bravery, stories of which are already being recounted.

As indicating the violence of the offensive, French ambulance men who went through the famous battle of Verdun, declared today that, comparatively speaking, the German artillery fire against the Americans was heavier than in any single engagement on the Verdun front at any time.

Old Positions Retaken Says French Statement

Paris, April 21—The French lines north of Schlechepre where the Germans inaugurated a heavy attack against French and Americans yesterday, have been completely re-established, according to the war office announcement tonight.

Wounded Huns Fill Belgian Hospitals

Amsterdam, April 21—Streams of wounded Germans from France and Flanders, says the frontier correspondent of the Telegraph, continues so great that all the hospitals, monasteries, convents and schools, not only in Brussels, but in many towns south of the Belgian capital, are filled to overflowing. The Germans have even requisitioned private houses for hospitals.

Forty ambulance trains entered the north station at Brussels daily last week. Many of them were made up of cattle cars in which there were littered of straw for the wounded men.

Big Gun Losses

Paris, April 21—Analysis of the German long-range gun bombardment of Paris, shows that shells have fallen on 17 days since March 23, and that, with the figures for two days missing, 118 persons were killed and 230 injured.

Paris was shelled by nine German batteries from January 5 to October 27, 1871, during which period 105 Parisians were killed and 369 injured.

MAYSVILLE TEACHERS

To Leave Wednesday Morning to Attend Meeting of Kentucky Educational Association at Louisville.

The teachers of the Maysville public schools will leave here on next Wednesday morning for Louisville to attend the annual meeting of the Kentucky Educational Association which will be held at that place from Wednesday until Saturday. Some excellent speakers are to make addresses and a fine program has been arranged.

Louisville, Ky., April 3, 1918.

My dear School Friend:

I enclose herewith copy of program for the next meeting of Kentucky Educational Association to be held in Louisville, April 24 to 27, 1918. Presenting the names of some excellent speakers and offering subjects of timely consideration, I believe you will pronounce it interesting and attractive. You were enrolled as a member last year and I am anxious for you to continue your membership and attend this year. A large number of teachers and other interested persons will be present, and I trust that you will decide now to be one of that number.

Leaders of educational thought have agreed that we should maintain at any cost the efficiency of our school system during these trying times of war. Officers of our Association are quite anxious that this meeting be one of the greatest in our history and that the attendance be exceedingly large. An appeal is therefore made to every loyal Kentucky teacher to be present and assist in making the meeting a successful one.

Prove your patriotism for Country and your loyalty for K. E. A. by enrolling and attending this session.

Special features of the program, which should appeal to every teacher, provide for a visit to Camp Zachary Taylor on Wednesday afternoon and evening. A detail of soldiers will be furnished to conduct the visitors through this most marvelous military city and thus assist in becoming acquainted with the most important features. The evening program will be held in Liberty Theatre at the Camp, and nothing will be left undone toward making this one of the most interesting meetings of the session.

County Judge Harry P. Purnell had his first double wedding Saturday when he united in marriage Miss Elizabeth Dodson, aged 20, to Mr. Henry Doyle, aged 27, Miss Vaneda Dodson, aged 20, to Mr. Burgess Doyle, aged 19. All were from Mayslick.

Mr. Morris Reubenacker of this city motored to Winchester and Lexington Sunday for a short visit.

Mr. Charles Nauman, Jr., of Ashland, was a visitor in the city yesterday.

FACES SERIOUS CHARGE

Henry McCarthy, Employee of the Steamer Homer Smith, Arrested at Manchester This Morning on a Charge of Raping Fifteen-Year-Old Maysville Girl.

Henry McCarthy, an employee of the Steamer Homer Smith, was arrested at Manchester, Ohio, early this morning by Marshal Richard Harris on a charge of having raped Muriel Perkins, aged 15, of this city.

Louisville, Ky., April 3, 1918. When the boat arrived here this morning at 2 o'clock from Cincinnati the Perkins girl, very much excited and with tears in her eyes, made known to Officer Dudley Bloomhuff that McCarthy had raped her. She said that she had gotten quite cold on the boat and that McCarthy had invited her into a room to get warm. She alleged that when she entered the room McCarthy locked the door, raped her and detained her for about an hour.

Officer Bloomhuff took the girl to police headquarters and Sergeant Mackey ordered that she be taken to Dr. W. S. Yazell for examination. Dr. Yazell, after making the examination, reported that the girl had been very roughly handled and that she was in a very nervous condition.

As the Homer Smith had proceeded up the river to Manchester word was sent to the authorities there to apprehend McCarthy and hold him for the local police. Chief of Police Ort left this morning for Manchester to bring McCarthy back to this city to stand trial.

TWO JUICY MELONS

Sliced Up By the Growers and Peoples Loose Leaf Tobacco Warehouses

house Companies.

During the past season tobacco men here at the start were greatly worried over the prospects of the warehouses' chances of turning over a penny on the good side of the books for the stockholders, and indeed they had lots of room for thus thinking, as a late opening and then a close down and then a freez up all contributed to the forecast that if any house played even it would be lucky.

But things changed for the better, and the farmers began rolling in their tobacco and the high prices obtained enabled the warehousemen to turn what had the ear marks of a bankrupt season into one that actually produced a profit, and last week the Growers and Peoples had a nice big juicy melon festival, the former declaring a 40 per cent. dividend and investing a neat sum in Liberty Bonds and the latter declared a 20 per cent. dividend and also had a nice sum to invest in Liberty Bonds.

It is to be hoped the other warehouses fare equally as well and that next season the melon-slicing will be more thoroughly enjoyed than this season's.

A DUEL AND YOU'RE IN IT

A mighty duel is in progress on the plains of France. It is a duel to the death, and America is the final arbiter. A year ago it became necessary for America to throw the might of her 110,000,000 people and all of her vast resources into the scales on the side of civilization. America is now beginning to be felt as a factor in this duel. Although lacking the discipline and organization which are well known characteristics of the foe, the initiative of American genius is solving our problems, while the alert mind and superior courage of our soldiers make them worth far more man to man than the docile and hard driven Hun.

America went into this war for a single purpose—a purpose in which the whole fortunes of civil and religious liberty were enclosed. That purpose was to win the war.

America went in to win the war at the hour when it was foreseen that only American strength could rescue civilization from the blight of barbarism. In taking this momentous step it was realized that America, possessing infinitely greater material and industrial resources, greater aptitude in arts and inventions peculiar to the present mode of warfare, greater man power and the exalted courage which makes the soldier transcend himself in fighting for a great principle, would be able to defend not only her own shores against barbarism invaders, but to drive them back from the confines of the free democracies of Europe, crushing meanwhile the autocratic spirit and uprooting the cruel philosophy which is the insatiate enemy of freedom and humane conduct. The President of the United States has committed the whole of this power and these wonderful resources of men and material wealth to the cause of eternal justice. The German war lords so shaped their policy as to compel America to enter the war on the side of righteousness, even before most Americans realized that the German standard meant woe to the whole world, and before we knew that even then German agents had committed traitorous and unfriendly acts against us, a peaceful, long suffering and friendly nation.

Whatever illusions may have held sway in American minds; whatever chivalrous ideals may have held the President's mind aloof from the real significance of the struggle, he is now converted to the idea and the truth that force is the only argument to which Germany will yield and that in a duel of force on force it is only superior force that can win.

The President now knows, as the whole world knows, that the Prussian power rests upon the sword—that the sword is expressive of the Prussian policy toward the world at large, and that under Bismarck Prussia fought three years wars of aggression with the spoils of which she laid the foundation for the present gigantic attack upon civilization.

It is a duel to the death and every American worthy of the name has a part in it. As a result of this duel the world is to be ruled by Germany or by freedom loving people who will be permitted to work out their own destinies according to the laws of liberty and political righteousness.

There will be no compromise measure. The duel now in progress will settle the question for generations to come. The world will be all free or all slave, any Americans have been reluctant to see the naked issue. But the President at length sees it as it is, and proclaims it to all Americans and to all the world. We can go forward to peace. There is but one road and that road leads through blood and tears to the grave of Prussian militarism beyond which the realm of lasting peace begins.

There is no other settlement, no other way.

Ask Denmark whose richest provinces were despoiled forty years ago. Ask France, ask the gray haired Austrian peasant who remembers the days before his land became the blighted handmaiden of kultur. Look at Russia, enslaved, looted, despoiled, crushed and humbled and disgraced.

The war on our part, calls for the greatest mobilization of men and money we have ever known. But the issue involves all that we have, all that we are and all that we hope for future generations of our descendants.

The duel is in the second stage and fainting gallantly, bled overmuch, relies upon our strong arm to take up the sword and avenge the cries of 10,000,000 widows and orphans, while stopping lust-born wars forever.

Enlist today. Find your place. The Liberty Bond army needs you, if you are not qualified for man's power service.—Huntington Herald Dispatch.

PROVISIONS

To Be Made So as to Water Cattle on County Court Day—Lunch
Stand to Be on Stock
Sale Grounds.

At a recent meeting of the Stock Sales Division of the Chamber of Commerce the installing of some arrangement whereby the cattle may be watered on County Court Day received much discussion and it was the consensus of the members present that the matter be placed in the hands of Mr. George Dodson with power act so that water may be supplied the cattle at the next court sales.

Many suggestions have been offered the committee regarding the charge of a rental for the pens. The Committee decided that for time being the pens would be free. It is their intention at an early date to have more cinders put on the lot and a row of large pens erected around the outer edge of the lot.

Mr. Chris Brown and Mr. George Wood Owens have kindly consented to take charge of the stock yards on County Court Day as an expression of their interest in helping make this a bigger and better Maysville. The committee accepted their kind offer and in the future these genial men will be in charge.

The unanimous opinion of the stock men and committee in charge is that a nominal charge should be made for weighing cattle. The members of the Stock Sales Division decided that beginning with next Court Sales a charge of twenty-five cents for weighing each draft shall be made.

Harrison Anderson made application to the Division for a permit to install a lunch counter on the stock yards, which was granted.

LET THE FIRELESS COOKER HELP YOU COOK

You can't afford to be without one. The fireless cooker can save fuel in winter and make your kitchen comfortable in summer. It will give you better food. It will save you time and labor for you can have your dinner cooking while you attend to other duties or go away from home. Make one for yourself. It may cost less than a dollar and will pay for itself in time and fuel saved. Or buy a ready-made one.

How a Fireless Cooker Cooks. If the food is made as hot as it can be on the stove, then it is put immediately into the cooker. Once there, it stays hot and keeps on cooking. The walls of the fireless cooker keep the heat in just as the walls of a good refrigerator keep the heat out.

Materials Needed for a Fireless Cooker

1. The outside container — any good-sized box or bucket with a tight cover—grocery box, a butter skin, a wooden candy bucket, 100-pound lard can, or a new garbage can.

2. Packing material—soft hay, excelsior, ground cork, sawdust, tightly crumpled newspapers, or any other good non-conductor material that can be packed in closely. This packing material forms a nest for the cooking vessel.

3. The nest lining—a metal or enamel bucket and sheet asbestos to cover the bucket. The bucket must have straight sides and a lid and must be of such a size as to allow at least three inches of packing material between it and the outside container top, bottom, and sides.

4. The cooking vessel — a vessel with a tight lid to fit closely into the next lining and yet slip in and out easily, or two or three of the small ones especially made for the fireless. The best kind is of enamel, granite or aluminum.

5. Cardboard—to make the collar.

6. The cushion—denim or muslin stuffed with the packing material. This cushion is to be pressed down across the top under the outside lid.

7. Two soapstone disks—purchas-able at a hardware store. They are not needed for all cooking, but with them you can cook more quickly and in greater variety.

To Make Fireless Cooker

1. Line the outside container with newspaper if a wooden box is used.

2. Pack the bottom of the outside container compactly with a layer of the packing material to the depth of three inches or more.

3. Cut a circle of asbestos two inches larger in diameter than the nest lining. Place the asbestos mat in the center of the packing.

4. Cut a strip of asbestos big enough to cover completely the outside walls of the bucket which is to serve as the nest lining, and tie it in place.

5. Place the bucket with its asbestos covering directly in the center on the asbestos mat. Hold in place and tightly fill in the space between it and the walls of the outside container with the packing material. Pack in solidly to within one-half inch of the bucket. The success of your cooker depends largely upon the tightness with which you crowd in the packing material, which prevents the heat from escaping from your hot food.

6. Cut a piece of cardboard to fit in the outside container. Cut a hole in the middle of it which will fit closely over the bucket which forms the nest lining. This "collar" holds the packing material in place.

7. Make the cushion for the top by cutting two pieces of cloth the size of the outside container and putting them together with a straight strip of cloth three inches wide. Stuff with the packing material.

8. Outside finishings. If a box is used for the outside container, the lid should be hinged and fastened down with a hook. If it is of wood, paint or stain it a dark color. Casters make it convenient to move about.

Some Precautions in Using the Fireless Cooker

Don't let the food or disks cool before you put them in the fireless. The food will not cook unless there is enough heat shut up with it. Reheat the food that requires long cooking, if it cools before it is finished. Reheat the food before serving, if necessary. A small quantity of food cools quickly so either use the disks or put a small vessel containing the food in the regular cooking vessel and surround it with hot water.

Sometime disks will increase the usefulness of your cooker. They can be heated hotter than the boiling point of water and when shut up in the fireless furnish heat which cooks the food. If you made your fireless according to directions you can safely use the disks. Heat them very hot, but do not let them get red hot, for fear of cracking. With one below and one on top of the cooking vessel you will be able to roast meat or even to bake bread or puddings. Without the disks your fireless is useful only for certain kinds of food—cereals, beans, pot roasts, stews, etc.—things that can be cooked in water.

Some Fireless Specialties

Cereals—Prepare as for the stove, but use one-sixth less water. Boil for 10 minutes, or longer with coarser cereals. Place in the cooker boil hot and leave six hours or over night.

Meats—Buy cheaper cuts. The fireless can make tough meat tender. For more recipes see Leaflet No. 5.

Crook Stew

1 lb. lean meat or 1 medium fowl.

2 cups tomatoes.

1 cup carrots or okra cut small.

1 cup chopped sweet peppers.

1/2 cup rice.

1/4 cup chopped onion.

1 teaspoon salt.

1 tablespoon fat.

Cut the meat in small pieces or cut the fowl into joints. Melt the fat, add the onions, peppers, meat or chicken. Brown for a few minutes. Put in cooking vessel with seasoning rice, vegetables, and one cup boiling water. Simmer for one-half hour and put in fireless for three hours without the disks or two hours with them. With chicken and okra this is the famous crook chicken of the South.

Roasts — Sear the roast, season, place in the cooking vessel between two hot disks. Do not add water. Allow 25 minutes per pound.

Soup Stock—Cut up meat, crack bones, and cover with cold water. Let it reach the boiling point, then place in the cooking vessel between two hot disks. Do not add water. Allow 25 minutes per pound.

Dried Fruits and Vegetables—Peas, beans, corn, dried fruit—soak in water until restored to the original size.

Roasted Peanuts—Soak in water for a few minutes, then keep in the cooker 6 to 12 hours. Baked beans or peas are especially good cooked in the fireless. See Leaflet No. 14.

are now fighting our battles as Red Cross and no other so fully is entitled to our sympathy and support. The need of money to continue and increase the scope of work that the noble women and men are engaged in for humanity is urgent and the National Association of which Woodrow Wilson is president, has asked the American people to contribute $100,000.00 to the cause, and Kentuckians are asked for $900,000 of it. Cashier John R. Downing, of the Phoenix and Third National Bank of Lexington, has been made State Chairman and Mr. S. W. Calder executive secretary, with offices at Lexington. They will be supported by a board of competent men selected from all over the state, who bring business methods and enthusiasm to the cause.

The drive for raising Kentucky's quota will be made during the week of May 20-27 and arrangements are being perfected to make it one long to be remembered for its success. The intervening time will be used to create interest in the matter and awaken the people to the duty of contributing with unstinted liberality to the glorious cause. Chairman are being appointed for each county and the amount that each will be asked to give fixed. These chairmen will meet with the board in Louisville April 23.

Already interest has been aroused in sections of the state, and people are going to work not only to raise the requisite amount but to send it away over the top. For instance the W. G. Duncan Coal Co. of Greenville, which operates the Graham and Lucerne mines, has given the output of a day and the miners their wages to the Red Cross, the operators in addition contributing dollar for dollar with the amount of the wages of the men, who number some 800. This coal will be shipped with the Red Cross seal on it and sold for the benefit of the organization and is expected to bring much more on that account. All the mines in the state will be asked to make similar contributions and speakers will visit them to tell what the Red Cross is doing and why it needs our assistance.

In Warren County, the great strawberry section, Mr. Charles S. Uahm has secured from the Strawberry Association a car load of berries for shipment east to be auctioned off for the benefit of the Red Cross, each box and crate to be marked with its seal and they will doubtless bring a large amount to add to the fund. Mr. Nahm is also arranging to have a car load of hogs contributed, with every plant will be asked to make a contribution to the insect pests or plant diseases of such countries makes it impossible safely to pass such plants by inspection or to safeguard them by disinfection.</p

BUY LIBERTY BONDS

To have withheld money from Washington might have prevented the founding of this nation upon the cornerstone of Liberty.

To have withheld money from Lincoln might have dashed the Republic upon the rocks and lost the Liberty so dearly bought.

To withhold money now would not only endanger this great, glorious country but might lose liberty for a whole world.

BUY LIBERTY BONDS! Invest $50 or more for your children's freedom, your grandchildren's safety, your own happiness. Aren't they worth the price?

GOOD-BYE, DAM WORK

A movement is now on foot by the Contractors to block work on the Ohio River Dams during the War Period.

Work on the improvement of the Ohio River may be stopped for the period of the war on the ground that it is not of a war emergency character. This possibly loomed up at Washington when a delegation of contractors who are engaged on Ohio River dam construction appeared before the Senate Committee on Commerce to present an urgent plea for relief.

The contractors said the contracts for dams were let when the United States was at peace and under normal peace conditions. At that time labor could be had at a reasonable wage, and the price of materials had not risen to the zenith. They represented that, owing to the excessive burdens due to the increased price of labor and lumber and other materials, they were bound to suffer losses which will drive some of the wall.

Request was made by the contractors that some sort of a provision be inserted in the rivers and harbors bill which will authorize the Secretary of War and Board of Army Engineers to investigate and ascertain what measure of relief should be extended them, and that Congress provide this relief.

The spokesmen for the contractors were P. E. Hunter, President of the Independent Construction Company, Pittsburgh; John R. McArthur, of McArthur Brothers, New York, and Mr. Rogers of Bates & Rogers Company, another large firm engaged on the dam.

Colonel Henry Newcomer, Army Engineers Corps, said that undoubtedly the contractors are entitled to relief. It was brought out that the amount of the increase as affecting the Ohio River dams under construction probably would reach $2,000,000.

There developed a sentiment in the Commerce Committees in favor of suspending the work on practically all the Ohio River dams until after the war.

The objection to granting the relief requested by these contractors was that every other contractor engaged on any kind of Government work would have the same claim for relief, and the cost would be enormous.

QUIETLY MARRIED

Hon. James N. Kehoe United in Marriage to Mrs. Frances Reed Calvert at Her Home Near Lewisburg Saturday Afternoon.

Mrs. Frances Reed Calvert, a popular young widow of the county, and Hon. James N. Kehoe, president of the First Standard Bank and Trust Company, were quietly married at the home of the bride near Lewisburg Saturday afternoon at 5 o'clock, the ceremony being performed by the Rev. J. Leslie Flinn, pastor of the Lewisburg Christian Church.

Although the many friends of both of the contracting parties knew of the courtship and engagement, the date of the marriage had been kept secret and it was not until Saturday that it was made known.

Immediately following the marriage Mr. and Mrs. Kehoe came to his home in this city and a delightful wedding supper was served, after which the bride and groom left on C. & O. train No. 4 for Philadelphia and other points in the East to spend their honeymoon.

The bride is one of the wealthiest women in the county and is quite popular and well known. The groom is prominent throughout the state in banking and political circles.

Upon their return to this city Mr. and Mrs. Kehoe will take up their residence at the home of the groom, on West Second street.

THE PRICE OF A GOOD TIME

A poor shop girl, who never had a good time, meets the son of a millionaire, owner of the place she is employed. When his family goes to the sea shore he offers her six nights of a good time. It's a story of life in the city where nobody cares, told upon the screen by the author of "Where Are My Children?" It is a story of what might happen to your daughter or your neighbor's daughter. It is adapted from the whim guiltless of wrong but all evidence against her. The dream week ends with a crash when she pays the price. Promises fine clothes, theatres, parties, swell suppers at fashionable restaurants among the bright lights and a glittering auto, all have to do with getting her to consent for the good time. This picture has just finished a four weeks engagement in Cincinnati where it met with tremendous success. This picture will be seen at the Pastime tomorrow matinee and night. Admission 20 cents. We pay your war tax today.
